

Are you celebrating the Jewish Holidays with a Preschooler?

Learn about rituals
you can do with your kids
with Rabbis Leonard Gordon and Adam Zeff

Sunday
Oct 25, 10 am Celebrating Shabbat Rabbi Gordon

You'll receive a background on the values and history of celebrating Shabbat, ways to celebrate Shabbat with young children, resources for prayers, songs, stories about Shabbat, as well as ways to build up children's Shabbat experiences incrementally.

Sunday
Dec 6, 10 am Celebrating the Winter Holidays Rabbi Zeff

We'll learn about the common origins and motivations behind winter holidays across religions, and how the Jewish holidays are situated within these other traditions. What does it mean to celebrate Hanukah in a multi-religious context? Pick up new songs, activities, recipes and rituals!
RSVP by Dec 3

Sunday
Mar 14, 10 am Celebrating the Spring Holidays Rabbi Gordon

Explore the Jewish holidays in the context of the spring holidays of other religions. We'll focus on Passover Seders for children: how to engage the children, find appropriate Hagadot and toys, and we'll learn songs and games. We'll also discuss negotiating different family celebrations and needs.
RSVP by Mar 11

Sunday
Apr 25, 10 am Integrating Rituals into Your Family Rabbi Zeff

Getting beyond Shabbat and holidays: Judaism is rich with possibilities for creating ritual moments in our everyday lives. We'll discuss and discover resources for creating ritual moments meaningful to your family around bedtime, waking up, meal time, and new experiences. Our goal is to call attention to the potential of these moments and enrich them with Jewish connection.
RSVP by Apr 22

This is a free program and free childcare is provided.

Please RSVP by the
