Following Shabbat services we will all come together for Sukkot/Shabbat lunch in the GJC Sukkah. Please then join us for dessert and shmoozing in neighboring sukkot on GJC's annual Sukkah Walk. We are grateful to those opening up their sukkot the community.

GJC Celebrates! Sukkot on Sunday, October 8

All are invited to join us for this family-friendly, community celebration! (for ages 4+)
Religious School will be in session, and will join the celebration.

10:30 AM A Sukkot Extravaganza! Join us at GJC for an extra-special program. Go from station to station creating the symbols of sukkot and exploring their meaning. Learn how to hold your lulav and etrog, and perfect your shaking technique.

11:30 AM Family Sukkot Service: There's a whole lot of shakin' going on! Move from the Sukkot Extravaganza to the Chary Sanctuary for a musical, story-filled Sukkot program and service led by Rabbi Adam Zeff and Rabbi Alanna Sklover.

12:00 PM Snacks in the Sukkah

GJC's Israel Programming presents

Of Sukkot & Other Harvest Holidays in the Contemporary Galilee Agricultural Landscape with culinary historian Abbie Rosner Sunday, October 8 at 10 AM

The agricultural underpinnings of the Biblical holidays can still be observed in the Galilee, where traditional farming and foodways are being practiced to this day in some rural Arab communities. With firsthand descriptions, vivid photographs, and food tasting, culinary historian Abbie Rosner offers compelling context to the Jewish harvest holidays.
