

HOME ON CAPE COD

With spectacular views, this spacious, 2-story New England “salt box home” in the Cape Cod community of Truro, Massachusetts, is available for a seven-day stay. The home offers sunsets over Cape Cod Bay and panoramas of dunes and heaths from the wrap-around decks, outfitted with sturdy seating and a hammock in the shade. Truro, famous for its dunes and broad beaches, is a quiet, natural community, only ten miles from funky, artsy Provincetown, with its theatres, shops, galleries and restaurants galore. No end to hiking, biking and beaching. Walk to Cape Cod Bay for beach access and bike or drive two miles to ocean beach.

The home has a sunny, open floor plan with a large living, dining, and kitchen area (the non-kosher kitchen is fully stocked). Its four bedrooms plus a children’s double bunk bedroom and an extra sleeping loft, sleep 14 people comfortably. There are 3 full baths, a washer and dryer, and best of all – an outdoor shower. The home is winterized and is as welcoming off-season as it is on. It’s an 8-hour drive from Philly or 2-hour drive from Boston airport. All this and heaven too upon mutual arrangement with its owner. Bedding and towels are included so no need to schlep yours.
