

Shalom Chaverim!

There is more than one way to be Jewish, and that means that there is far more than one way to celebrate the High Holidays in community. At Germantown Jewish Centre, we revel in that diversity, believing that having a range of different choices for praying and learning during the High Holidays enriches our community immensely. All of our prayer services, learning opportunities, and programs are welcoming to all, fully egalitarian, and highly participatory. We invite you to come and explore them!

Germantown Jewish Centre is committed to creating community that is accessible to everyone, and cost is not a barrier to attending High Holiday services and programs. While we do ask for a suggested donation of $200 per ticket to help defray the cost of providing all we offer during the High Holidays, we are always willing to work with you to find the amount appropriate for you. Undergraduate and graduate tickets have a suggested donation of $36.

While High Holiday tickets are available this way, we urge you to consider becoming a member of Germantown Jewish Centre prior to the High Holidays. Our rabbis and professional staff would be delighted to speak with you if you have questions about membership. Our dues year begins in January, and dues are pro-rated for those joining during this season. If you are considering becoming a member, and would like High Holiday tickets, please email Kate Lawn, Program & Membership Director, at community@germantownjewishcentre.org.
